Day by Day Itinerary

Day 1 - Meet Jackson Airport, shuttle to Togwotee Lodge

Your guides will meet you as you arrive at Jackson Hole Airport, then shuttle up to our first night lodging tucked away in the pine trees of the Bridger Teton Forest. Enjoy free time to explore around the resort and its surroundings before gathering for orientation and dinner.

Relax: Free time to relax until dinner

Eat: Dinner

Sleep: Togwotee Lodge

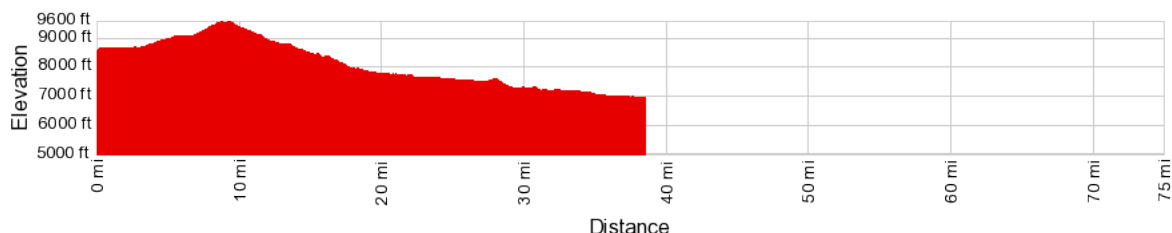

Day 2 - Mostly downhill cycling to Dubois

After a hearty Wyoming breakfast at the lodge, we are off and running. Your ride today starts off with a slow ascent through the pine and fir forests towards Togwotee Pass, the highest point of the entire tour. The bicycle ride from Togwotee to Brooks Lake to Dubois in Wyoming offers a scenic adventure through stunning landscapes. Starting at Togwotee Pass, you'll pedal through majestic mountains, lush forests, and possibly spot wildlife. Descending into the Upper Wind River Valley, you'll ride alongside the Wind River, known for trout fishing. Brooks Lake awaits with its tranquil alpine beauty. Finally, you'll reach Dubois, a charming town where Western heritage meets outdoor recreation. Explore art galleries, museums, and attractions like the National Bighorn Sheep Center.

Ride: 38 mi, Land: short climb, then downhill

Day 4 - Shuttle to Atlantic City, South Pass City, downhill cycling to Farson Mercantile, shuttle to Pinedale

We will shuttle up to the historic Atlantic City to start today's adventure. Bicycling around Atlantic City and South Pass City in Wyoming offers a captivating journey through history and scenic landscapes. Starting in Atlantic City, a ghost town known for its rich mining heritage, you'll pedal through a landscape dotted with remnants of the past. The ride takes you to South Pass City, a well-preserved historic mining town that provides a glimpse into Wyoming's past. As you continue, the route leads downhill, offering a thrilling descent towards Farson. Along the way, you'll be treated to expansive views of Wyoming's vast plains and rolling hills. Farson, a small community, welcomes you with the opportunity to refuel at the famous Farson Mercantile before shuttling to Pinedale for the night.
