

Bali Paradise Ride

a 9 day Indonesia Bike Tour

A unique bike tour through the spectacular scenery of Bali. Pedal past emerald rice paddies climbing up the hillsides and ancient temples tucked under towering palm trees, cycle around volcanic lakes and along black sand beaches. Explore historic Ubud by bicycle and discover the traditional ways of life in quiet villages. An awesome ride through paradise.

We begin our bike tour in Candidasa, tucked away on the eastern beaches, where our warmup ride explores ancient cave and carvings. From here we enjoy a ride along the eastern and northern beaches, stopping to explore ancient temple complexes, stroll along black sand beaches and enjoy nature's beauty. You'll explore villages off the beaten tourist track and relax beachfront most evenings.

Our later leg, heads into the center of the island, exploring the scenic lakes tucked under towering volcanoes, visiting temples dating back to the 11th century perched on the rims of active calderas. Relax on the shore of a lake inside the volcano's crater, the swoop back down the mountainside to Ubud. It is a delightful bike tour through the land of fables and gods. Come discover paradise from the saddle.

Day by Day Itinerary

Day 1 - Your group will meet at Denpasar Airport, get set up with your bike for the tour, then transfer to the fishing village of Candidasa, tucked away on the eastern seaboard. We'll start your introduction to Balinese cuisine at a local seafood restaurant, where we enjoy bounty fresh from the sea.

Day 2 - We warm up with a ride into the foothills, stopping to explore Goa Gajah, the elephant cave and the rock carvings of Yeh Pulu, some of Bali's oldest. And possibly take a sidetrip to visit Tenganan, a Bali Aga village, that still follows the traditional ways.

Cycling: 47 mi / 75 km

Day 3 - Discover traditional ways in the Aga village at Tenganan, explore the water palace of Taman Ujung, and salt farms of Amed.

Its a short day of cycling, with some moderate climbs. You'll start along quiet side roads skirting between the ocean and Mt Lempuyang. Visit Taman Ujung, one of Bali's renowned "water palaces" and Ahmed's salt farms before reaching our hotel perched on the hillside with dramatic views of the ocean. The waters around Amed are well known to divers, with a popular local dive to see the wreck of the USS Liberty.

Cycling: 31 mi / 55 km

Day 4 - Check out Pura Meduwe Karang temple with its statues and "historic" carving of a man on a bike, cycle to West Bali National Park for wildlife viewing.

A leisurely day cycling the north shore of Bali, with black sand beaches tucked away in quiet coves. Visit the ancient temple complex of Pura Meduwe Karang, with its Ramayana sculptures and relief carving of a man riding a bicycle. We overnight in Lovina, a beach town whose name means "I love Indonesia".

Cycling: 44 mi / 71 km

Day 5 - We enjoy a daytrip by bike today, pedaling to the western end of the island along the flat coastal roads, our goal is West Bali National Park, known for its diverse bird population as well as deer, Banteng and Leopard Cats. Shuttle back to Lovina for a second night.

Cycling: 48 mi / 77 km

Day 6 - Bike to Gitgit and Munduk Waterfalls, relax in the hills overlooking rice paddies and lush valleys. A laid back day without cycling. We will first shuttle up into the volcanic center of the island, stopping to hike to Gitgit Waterfalls and through the surrounding forests. At lunch we reach our resort tucked away in a tiny village with dramatic views overlooking the north side of the island. Relax poolside or walk around the village to explore.

Day 7 - Bike through Jati Luwah rice terraces, downhill to the Tanah Lot temple.

We'll roll through the beautiful vistas of the Jati Luwah Rice Terraces, an area that gets featured in many photographers' works. For fans of the movie Bucket List, you will pass several small shops selling Kopi Luwak. We will descend to the coast where we enjoy views of the Tanah Lot Temples sitting above the crashing waves, perhaps catching an awesome sunset, before shuttling into Ubud for the night.

Cycling: 53 mi / 85 km

Day 8 - Day off the bikes for whitewater rafting and exploring Ubud, day 9 depart Bali.

Our bikes get the day off as we switch gear and enjoy some whitewater rafting through the deep gorges surrounding Ubud. You have the afternoon free to explore this artist's town and shop for Balinese handcrafts and art or perhaps try your hand at creating Balinese cuisine with a cooking class. We will wind down an awesome ride through paradise with a great dinner at one of our favorite restaurants.

Day 9 - After an early breakfast we will shuttle back to Denpasar Airport for fond farewells and your flights home or onward to more adventures. Sampai Jumpa.
